Howdy Fellow Classmates

Can you believe it's been 45 years since we graduated from Texas A&M University?

It's time to reflect on our time at A&M and enjoy our 45-Year Reunion by making new friends and rekindling old relationships.

SAVE THE DATE

In that regard, Please save the weekend of 11-14, 2025 for our 45-Year Reunion! Yes, we will have a great party to watch the Aggies BTHO Notre Dame in South Bend!

REUNION VENUE AND HOST HOTEL

More details regarding the reunion event schedule will be published in subsequent Class of '80 Reunion emails later this year.

CLASS GIFT IDEAS

One of the business meeting agenda items we will be voting on is a Class Gift to be delivered as we enter the Sul Ross Group in 10 years. An initial Gift idea is a second Class of '80 Core Value Award similar to The Class of '80 Core Value Award for Selfless Service but for a different core value.

We are looking for additional Class of '80 Gift ideas. If you have an idea, please send it to one of the Class Agents.

We hope you will make plans now to join your Classmates in September. If you have not attended a prior Reunion or fear you won't know anyone, we are working to ensure you will meet other Classmates and experience an enjoyable weekend with new and old friends.

CLASS OF '80 WINE

To celebrate the artwork (copyrighted) for the Class of '80's first Class Gift (E. King Gill Statue) and in conjunction with the Class of '80 45-Year Reunion, we will be offering wine from Williams Chris Vineyards in Fredericksburg. Chris Brundrett '06 is co-founder and winemaker. The Class of '80 BQ's have had multiple Reunions at the Williams Chris Vineyards.

The winery has offered to sell a special red wine blend. The wine blend is similar to a merlot at $18 per bottle, which is 50% below retail price. We must pre-sell a minimum of 20 cases prior to March 1 to move forward with the wine sale.

The wine bottle will be labeled with our Class of '80 Logo (see below).

You can pre-order any number of bottles or cases and have it shipped to your home. It will be available in the fall, but we MUST fill the minimum by March 1, 2025! Please order early if you are interested! You will not be charged until the wine is shipped.
